

M. A. English CBCS Course

University Department of English

B. R. A. Bihar University, Muzaffarpur

Note

A meeting of Heads of Departments across the Universities of Bihar and the Departmental Council (P.U.) was convened in the Department of English, Patna University on 7th May 2018 in which the M.A. English CBCS syllabus was discussed and unanimously approved.

Certain structural changes have been made in conformity with the draft regulations received by the Department after that date. The course content, However remains unaltered. We wish to make certain observations and suggest changes in the draft regulations pertaining to the allotment of marks in part A B and C.

In part A the marks allotted for the objective type multiple choice questions may

Be changed to $10 \times 1 = 10$. This change will reduce the possibility of the use of unfair means in the examinations and is likely, therefore, to reflect the true merit of the student.

In Part B, the short answer questions will include reference to the context requiring critical analysis. The inclusion will encourage detailed reading of prescribed texts so that our students are able to engage more intensively and meaningfully with the syllabus. In doing so their ability to compete at par with their peers across the country and overseas will be significantly enhanced. The allocation of marks will therefore be $4 \times 6 = 24$.

Correspondingly, the marks allocation in part C, that requires extensive and detailed interpretation of texts, (not more than 350 words). Need to be altered to $3 \times 12 = 36$. The total marks thus add up to 70 for the End Semester Examination.

These alterations are urged in the best interests of the academic community in its maintenance of minimum standards in Higher education.

CBCS Scheme of Examination and Courses of Study for the M.A. Examination in English

VISION

The Vision of the Department of English comprises a responsible revaluation of a rich scholastic tradition and focuses on the dynamics of future challenges to build a scholarly community engaged in committed teaching, quality research, co-curricular and socially productive activities. Encouragement is provided to value scholarship, skills and wisdom with fearless intellectual integrity and artistic freedom to facilitate a microcosm of an enlightened civilization. The aim of the Department is to strike a balance between creativity and critical thinking. The focus is on the study of diverse literatures, criticism, communication of ideas and development of new perspectives through theoretically informed interpretations. The Department promotes interactive scholarship, debating, ingenuous pursuits to create knowledge without borders, thus investing in 'thinking', 'questioning' and 'exploring' what is beyond. The students are encouraged to use the library and access online journals as resources of knowledge. Presentations, seminars and films are facilitated by the use of ICT.

MISSION

Our responsibilities to civil society are to facilitate professional competence, socially conscientious human resource, encourage leadership qualities and cultivate positive interests, attitudes and moral intellectual values. Emphasis will be laid on critical thinking and textual analysis through theoretically informed perspectives to enable a nuanced understanding of the word and the world.

Conscientising students towards gender, class, caste, race, disability and non-human ecology is a priority. Apart from critical engagement with texts, opportunities shall be provided to students to realize their potential in cultural and creative areas, encourage communicative competence, independent initiatives and use their imagination to envisage justice in the quest of building a society and a civilization that respects diversities and equality. The M.A. English syllabus comprises 14 Core courses (CC), two Elective courses (EC), One Generic Elective (GE) OR Discipline Specific Elective Course (DSE), one Ability Enhancement Course (ACE) and two Ability Enhancement Compulsory Courses (AECC) in evaluation and the teaching will be structured accordingly.
